Tried to Kill Pres. McKinley

Buffalo, N. Y., Sep. 6.—President McKinley was shot this morning in the Temple of Music.

Two shots were fired but took effect in the air. His condition is serious. He is now in the American Hospital of Buffalo, Sep. 6.—Mr. Frank P. Cooper, police commissioner, arrived at the hospital and is now probing for the bullet which hit the president. Police Commissioner Cooper has had an interview with Nieman, and has been told definitely that he was an anarchist.

Buffalo, Sep. 6.—It is now said the president is in critical condition. He is now in the Service Hospital, which was not known to be under arrest but unidentified. The president is said to have been taken to the hospital by the police station. As the man approached, he was revolver drawn with a handkerchief and as he reached his hand to his pocket, the bullet struck his hand. The president is fatally injured. On his way through the left hand and shoulder, he entered the ambulance.

Buffalo, Sep. 6.—The assassin's name is Fred Nieman, said to be a German, who has resided in Buffalo for a week on Broadway.

Mrs. McKinley has not yet been identified. The shot was fired at 12.45 p.m. The president was resting easily. An attempt was made to shoot him in the head. The assassin was getting out of the grounds and locked up.

The streets in front of the different newspaper offices were crowded with people.

The assassin admits that he is an anarchist and that he is a Polish national. He says he is of Polish nationality. Four physicians, Dr. Myrtle, Dr. Haskins, Dr. Thompson, of the city, and Dr. Lee, of St. Louis, are with the president.

Toronto, Sep. 6.—Just 24 hours ago the newspapers of the city bailed forth in a tempest of the greatest day in Buffalo's history.

Toronto, in sombre type, surrounded by borders of black, the same newspapers are telling the deplorable details of the "Blackest day in the history of Buffalo."

President McKinley, the idol of his party, the nation's choice, the nation's hope, the honored guest, lies prostrate suffering the pangs inflicted by the bullet which has struck him.

It was shortly after 4 p.m. when one of the throng which surrounded the medium sized man of ordinary appearance and plainly of foreign birth, stepped forward to go to the president.

Both Secretary Cortelyou and President McKinley were in the office of the man's hands was swathed in a handkerchief.

He worked his way amid the crowd, and when he reached the door of the dias until he was within two feet of the president, President McKinley had extended his hand, and extended his hand in that spirit of geniality the American people have come to know.

The assassin, in a sudden, sharp crack of a revolver round, sent a shower of voices, the shuffling of myriad feet, and the vibration of many a heart, as there came a sound here and there over the assemblage.

The multitude, only partially aware that something terrible had occurred, in the stillness of surprise, while necks were creased and all eyes stared, to see the man who when a great tragedy was being enacted, had been seen to walk away.

Buffalo, Sep. 6.—It has been learned that the real name of the would be assassin is Leon Czolgosz, a Polish immigrant, born in Detroit, and came here from Cleveland. He said to reporters that he was returning to the country which he was recently in, and had been in Canada.

The following bulletin was issued by the president's physician, Dr. Frank P. Cooper, of Buffalo, who said that the president is rallying satisfactorily and now requires no medical attendance.

Temperatures 100° F. pulse 124, respiration 24." The president's physician is now in Canada, and had been in touch with Dr. Nieman.

Chicago, Sep. 6.—Six men were placed under arrest in this city tonight on the charge of being members of the anarchist organization. The men were all found in one place and Zarxon avenue on the west side.

Investigations were made on information from the police officials in Buffalo, who said they were the leaders of a gang of anarchists and the assistant of the president belonged and that they had been arrested.

The police have not yet given the names of the men, but it is known to be Abraham Isaak, president of the organization of the Free Society.

He is the former editor of a paper of an Anarchistic principle which bore the name of "Free Thinker."
